

Non-Invasive Prenatal Testing (NIPT)

The Harmony test is a simple maternal blood test to screen for common chromosomal abnormalities during pregnancy. It has detection rates of over 99% for Down's syndrome and carries no risk of miscarriage.

It is performed from 10 weeks gestation at the time of a scan to accurately confirm gestation. Results are available within 10–14 days.

This test is not currently available locally on the NHS.

For more information please visit www.womensultrasound.co.uk or call 0207 636 6765.